

Twinter wonderland background!

Posted by Ms. Information on Dec 07 20:05 Email this

There are so many ways to celebrate the holidays in Zwinktopia. Already we've got the Wishlist where holiday shopping is more fun that you could possibly wish for (get it?)! And soon we'll be rolling out a ton of stuff with exactly that sentiment in mind.

There's wintering up your profile page, of course. I had a blast playing on our sister site, Webfetti, to find the perfect background. Just check out my wintery wonderful page! Which leads me to the real reason for this quick post.

I want to thank everyone who updated their Zwinky look and posted it as their pic on their Twitter pages! One of the fun things I love to do as each new season comes around is make the zwINK Twitter page sparkle with Zwinky pride! And I certainly couldn't do that without all of you!
