Meet the Editors

Sara Nelson

Sara became the Editorial Director of Amazon.com after working as books editor at O, the Oprah magazine, and as editor in chief of Publishers Weekly. In other words, her job for many, many years has been to read a lot of books and talk and write a lot about books. Tough life, huh?

Mari Malcolm

If someone dropped a match next to Mari's bed, they'd ignite a pyre fueled by piles of novels and guides to being a better gardener, crafter, cook, designer, writer, and person. She rarely reads by candlelight.

Jon Foro

An avid reader since age six when he ordered Hardy Boys 53: The Clue of the Hissing Serpent, Jon has spent over 20 years in the book business, and over 15 years at Amazon.com. He enjoys ancient history, literary fiction, and adventure and nature writing, especially books about bears.

Neal Thompson

A journalist & author, amateur photographer/videographer, and compulsive reader-writer, Neal's ramrant tastes veer from narrative non-fiction to literary fiction to long-form journalism to memoir/biography to history, sports, music, food... Favorite way to kill an hour: book, bourbon, Miles Davis.

Chris Schlupe

Chris spent over a decade editing books in New York before moving to Seattle, where he lives with his wife and two sons and writes about books instead. With a wide, unpredictable reading range, he takes pride in connecting readers with the books they'll love--one of the best jobs in the world.

Kevin Nguyen

Kevin's a sucker for short story collections, magical realism, novels unrelated to NYC, comics that reinvent superhero mythology, books with colophons, and other literary things that he'll talk about for hours on end at parties. Which might explain why he hasn't been invited to a party since 2006.

Robin A. Rothman

This former rock critic, TV & Radio reporter, and Entertainment & Features editor proudly wears the "Editorial Team Geek" title. She's drawn to quirky fiction, funny Sci-Fi, big fantasy, cult classics, pop culture nonfiction, and anything that will help her survive the zombie apocalypse.

Seira Wilson

Seira can't remember a time when she wasn't infatuated with reading--17+ years in the book industry later, her house is brimming with shelves upon shelves of memoirs, cookbooks, all manner of fiction, and an insane number of children's books and YA novels. Don't judge, just borrow a book.
